I've bought some Ronseal Tudor Black Oak fence paint and was going to do the fence in that , the shed will be re done white , there will be wooden decking and the grass of course will be tidy. I thought some budget black rattan lounging furniture would look good with palm plants, neutral colours , maybe a splash of sky blue and orange in some cushions.

I will usually decide if I want the black to be highlighted blue or grey. Then I wash a dark shade of color with black wash. This will often blend a dark grey into a shadow of Black, while leaving slight edge highlights. Grey looks more like worn and dusty black, while Dark blue looks more like shiny/smooth black.

She likes Sherwin-Williams' Black of Night (SW 6993) and Greenblack (SW 6994). Walls must be prepped to ultra-smooth, because black, reflecting light as it does, announces every paint drip and drywall dent. A flat finish produces a higher-end look, although doors, doorframes and window frames can be glossy.

I'm so sorry, Irene, but I don't remember the paint colors! I'm about 99% sure we used semigloss paint straight off the shelf for the white, and the black was a porch and floor paint by Sherwin Williams. It might have been Tricorn Black, but I'm afraid I don't remember the color name for sure.

"Black Pain is an immensely readable and down-to-earth book. It will motivate black people who suffer with depression in silence to seek help. This book shines a bright light on the darkness of despair"
