Black Rain (Rain #1) By: Jettie Woodruff 4/5 stars This book starts in the present with Mikki & Pea on the run & the reader has no idea why they're on the run or where they're going. Then it jumps back in a remembering scene a couple years earlier when Mikki met Pea's father Blake. This is how almost the whole book is written.

Black Rain is centered around the story of a young woman who was caught in the radioactive "black rain" that fell after the bombing of Hiroshima. Ibuse bases his tale on real-life diaries and interviews with victims of the holocaust; the result is a book that is free from sentimentality yet manages to reveal the magnitude of the human suffering caused by the atom bomb.

I have to applaud Jettie Woodruff as she is always working outside the proverbial box. Each book I read by her just kinda messes with my head and has me thinking hours after the last paragraph. Black Rain is no different. While I cannot say that I loved this book, I truly cannot say that I didn't.
