“Blood, Smoke and
Mirrors was a compelling read. Catherine ‘Cat’ Baker was an authentic and endearing heroine – big butt and all. ...overall, I was impressed and glad that I had the opportunity to discover Robyn Bachar.

I’ll be looking forward to what she does next. But first I have to get something to eat.

Mirrors is the first book in a series of Urban Fantasy novels starring Catherine, a plump, cynical, and pessimistic heroine of mixed bloodlines with a dead mother, a very highly detested estranged father, and an ex-

boyfriend who turned her in for acting in self-defense.

Blood, Smoke and Mirrors contains all the things I love the best in books, great internal and external tension, quirky or slightly flawed protagonists, great dialogue, and a captivating story line. It also has a wonderful world.
