The BNS 5.0 is an entirely different headunit than what is in your car, which I believe is mostly found in TTs and A3s. There is no way to toggle the RSN-E (the navigation headunit in B6/B7 cars) to be monochrome only as far as I know, you can change the color scheme somewhat in the settings of the RNS-E itself (no vag-com cable needed) but not to entirely monochrome.
