Handbook for Independent Director's Examination (With MCQs) Bloomsbury Publishing The 2002 Legislature changed substantially the statues governing closure of schoolbuildings by school district boards of education. The new law authorizes each school district board of education to close a school building whenever the board finds that doing so will improve the district's school system. This action is taken by adoption of a resolution.

Prior to adopting the resolution to close a school building (or buildings), the board must hold a hearing. Notice of the hearing must include the reasons for the proposed closing, the name of any affected buildings, and the name of any school building to which the involved pupils will be reassigned. The notice also must include the time, date, and place of the public hearing. This notice must be published at least once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the school district. The last publication must be at least ten days, but not more than 20 days, prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing, the board presents its school closing proposal and takes testimony concerning it. Subsequently, the board determines if the school building should be closed. The following attachments I and II describe the laws pertaining to closure and change of use of school buildings prior to the 2002 revision.
