Over the last thirty years, Jeanette Winterson has worked across the
genres of film, essay,
novel, children ' s
literature, short story, ' comic ' (as Winterson herself
describes Boating for Beginners (1985)),
even self-help guide:
Fit for the Future

is the formal indeterminacy and genre-bending of her individual
works, for which Winterson is perhaps best known.
