Any study in the book of Revelation must focus upon one key theme. The first five words of this book, "THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST", declares the THEME of this book in its entirety. The aim/objective/intention is to reveal HIM, JESUS, THE CHRIST, THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD...as it is as well with every other book in the Bible. When we make our focus about man, we are eschewed, or moved away from the place of our Beginnings. When we take our eyes, and attention away from JESUS, THE WORD/JESUS, THE LAMB/JESUS, THE SAVIOR/JESUS, THE LORD/JESUS, THE KING we make a complete detour around the very center of all that our life and living are about. We should take note that this is not a book called, Revelations, as being plural. It is in fact a book called, "REVELATION" as being singular. It is all about Him. There are actually Three REALMS of Revelation: (to reveal) 1] Natural/Outer Court/External/Physical 2] Artificial/Inward Court/Internal/Mental 3] Eternal/Inner Court/Infinite/Spiritual The dispensational understanding came into being, by those who had no infilling, nor liberty in the Holy Spirit. If, according to JOHN 14, 15, AND 16, THE WORD OF GOD, as well as GOD'S ETERNAL PLAN, cannot be interpreted properly unless given inspiration by THE HOLY SPIRIT, then it must be concluded that the current volume from which many ministries and believers draw assumptions PLAN, are at best inaccurately depicting what it was that GOD was trying to share with THEIR CREATION. Most of what we call "Revelation Study" is AN OVERVIEW OF LAST DAYS EVENTS. Most of these events are the catastrophic exaggerations of hireling parrots, who only wish to sell books, or get a spot on T.V.! THIS IS NOT

WHAT REVELATION IS ABOUT. If this book is to be given the serious consideration deserved as being THE WORD OF GOD, all conclusions MUST have GOD'S CENTER AND FOCUS REVEALED IN THE PERSON OF JESUS, THE CHRIST, THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD. Without such intent, any interpretation will nullify the TRUTH, as GOD pre determined its purpose to be. "Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: ...". ISAIAH 46:8-10 The first five words of this book identify and explain everything within this volume; much of which has been otherwise, sensationalized through "parroted teaching" having no anointing, nor are such teachings being led of GOD'S SPIRIT! How is it that so many take for granted that those authors to which they claim to receive understanding are neither filled with THE SPIRIT'S LEADING, nor do they have AN INTIMATE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GOD OF ALL LIVING. How can this writer make such claims? Simple! There is no eternal life evident in the fear mongering, last day event stupidities, and untold laziness toward never taking the time to mediate and listen to the voice of God's forever leading by the unconditional order of

Daniel and the Revelation Crossway

Revelation is probably the most read, but least understood book of the Bible. History is replete with examples of how not to interpret it, and books featuring end-of-world prophecy claims based on Revelation consistently top the bestseller lists. But how can the message of such an enigmatic book be applied to our lives today? In Discipleship on the Edge, Darrell W. Johnson drives home the challenging and practical message of Revelation in thirty carefully crafted sermons. Paying careful attention to the original context of Revelation and the circumstances surrounding its composition, Johnson shows that the book is not a "crystal ball" but rather a "discipleship manual." Thoroughly researched and yet accessible, this collection of sermons is a helpful resource for pastors and small group leaders who are looking for models to help them preach and teach the message of Revelation in a time when there is much confusion about the end times. Darrell W. Johnson serves as Scholar-in-Residence at The Way

Church and Canadian Church Leaders Network in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. A popular conference and retreat speaker, he has also served as the preaching pastor for a number of congregations in North America and the Philippines, as well as serving as Adjunct Professor of Preaching for the Doctor of Ministry program at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, and a Teaching Fellow at

Regent College. His other books include Experiencing the Trinity and Fifty-Seven Words That Change The World. Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary Grove/Atlantic, Inc. Shows, with solid reasons, that the Book of Revelation has a literary form, similar to the short story. The NIV Study Bible Candle Books This document's purpose is to spell out the Church's understanding of the nature of revelation--the process whereby God communicates with human beings. It touches upon questions about Scripture, tradition, and the teaching authority of the Church. The major concern of the document is to proclaim a Catholic understanding of the Bible as the "word of God."

Key elements include:

Trinitarian structure, roles of apostles and bishops, and biblical reading in a historical context.

The end of the world is coming. From roadside signs to science fiction films, this slogan underscores our society's nervous fascination with the future. Whether it's a giant asteroid, a worldwide plague, or some other global catastrophe, the end of the world is a terrifying prospect—at least for those who have no idea what it will be like. For Christians, however, the end of the world should be anything but dreadful. In fact, it should be something we actually look forward to. Why? Because God has told us how the world will end. And He has assured us that the end of this age will mark the beginning of a new, glorious one in which we will serve and worship Him in sinless perfection. Our eternal hope, as believers, is intimately tied to the end of this world. All of this is laid out in the book of Revelation. Not only is Revelation the inspired Word of God, it is also the only New Testament book that includes a promised spiritual blessing for those who study and apply its message. As such, it is an essential part of every Christian's devotional life. Those who ignore Revelation deprive themselves of a rich treasure of divine truth, and the promised blessings that come from understanding that truth. Join John MacArthur as he explains the book of Revelation in a way that is both doctrinally precise and intensely practical. Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament USCCB Publishing
