Why Hilary Mantel writes to survive.
The author of the Wolf Hall trilogy once lay on her notebook to prevent it being taken away. She talks about what's next, doctors and why writing is like fighting.

The first Brooker price Hilary Mantel won was after she had published her first novel Wolf Hall in 2009. Wolf Hall is a fictional biography which documents about how Thomas Cromwell rose to power rapidly (around 1500 to 1535) while in Henry VIII 's reign. Thomas Cromwell was a powerful minister who worked in King Henry VIII 's court.
