A historian examines how everyday people reacted to the president's assassination in this "highly original, lucidly written book" (James M. McPherson, author of Battle Cry of Freedom). The news of Abraham Lincoln's assassination on April 15, 1865, just days after Confederate surrender, astounded a war-weary nation. Massive crowds turned out for services and ceremonies. Countless expressions of grief and dismay were printed in newspapers and preached in sermons. Public responses to the assassination have been well chronicled, but this book is the first to delve into the personal and intimate responses of everyday people—northerners and southerners, soldiers and civilians, black people and white, men and women, rich and poor. Exploring diaries, letters, and other personal writings penned during the spring and summer of 1865, historian Martha Hodes captures the full range of reactions to the president's death—far more diverse than public expressions would suggest. She tells a story of shock, glee, sorrow, anger, blame, and fear. "'Tis the saddest day in our history," wrote a mournful man. It was "an electric shock to my soul," wrote a woman who had escaped from slavery. "Glorious News!" a

Lincoln enemy exulted, while for the black soldiers of the Fifty-Fourth Massachusetts, it was all “too overwhelming, too lamentable, too distressing” to absorb. Longlisted for the National Book Award, Mourning Lincoln brings to life a key moment of national uncertainty and confusion, when competing visions of America’s future proved irreconcilable and hopes for racial justice in the aftermath of the Civil War slipped from the nation’s grasp. Hodes masterfully explores the tragedy of Lincoln’s assassination in human terms—terms that continue to stagger and rivet us today.

GAO Five-Year Update on Wildland Fire and Forest Service/Bureau of Land Management Accomplishments in Implementing the Healthy Forests Restoration Act

I discovered so many things at this time. I always thought Father had neutered his angels before throwing them into the Prison Hades. He told me he did not; they are at full power. I was shocked! Akibeel came into the connection. He would not talk to me, then the Knowing kicked in. His expertise was being able to separate the human spiritual body from the human physical body. They all acted like I was in big trouble because Akibeel was here. I welcomed the fact that he was here so I could beat him to a pulp with one of the first tools Father had given me. He ran away with his tail between his legs. The talking heads made their debut. They are 250 ft giants that can only get their heads through to our reality, because the power modules under them lack the power needed for their bodies to get through the gateway. I ventured inside my memories and I found a gateway, which seems to be an entry-point for the Negative Zone. It is more than fascinating. Father agreed to answer questions about the PIT. It is a great interview with Father. Also I discovered that the Shroud effect around my house is actually Hades. It was a piece of their environment brought there by the fallen angels. I couldn't believe it. I didn't worry because Father was there. It was a matter of either sending me to Hades with them or bringing Hades to me to write about it. After thinking we had sent all of the angels to the Abyss, many more started to show up. We are talking in the Millions. Yippee! In this book we also continue our analysis of their tones and pulsations. With this book, we have many captioned pictures. Father programmed my security cameras with the ability to record the spiritual reality and our physical reality either separate or at the same time. It took him 4 hours to program them. They are now genius cameras that know when to record the realities at the same time or separately. Planning and Designing Schools This collection is packed with 20 easy-to-make recipes that rely on little more than chicken and pantry staples.
