The origin of bourbon is not well documented. There are many conflicting legends and claims, some more credible than others. For example, the invention of bourbon is often attributed to Elijah Craig, a Baptist minister and distiller credited with many Kentucky firsts (e.g., fulling mill, paper mill, ropewalk) who is also said to have been the first to age the product in charred oak casks, a process which gives bourbon its reddish color and distinctive taste. Kentucky Bourbon Timeline - Kentucky Distillers Association Kentucky Bourbon Timeline Part of the allure of Kentucky Bourbon is the rich history of artisanship that has persisted through generations.
