In Broken Dolls we get to see Brian's love story unfold. If you read Guilty Pleasures (and if you didn't, you should), you've met the damaged, psychotic Brian who is the bane of the slaves' existence. Mina has her own brand of damage that would appear to make her the worst possible match for Brian. But Kitty Thomas weaves her literary magic and ...

But Kitty Thomas weaves her literary magic and poof - we get a poignant love story that shows two broken souls fit together beautifully. Aside from this unlikely romance, this book is quite dark and action-packed. I won't talk about the plot so as not to spoil it, but my heart was pounding though most of the book.
