WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME? Information technology lives all around us-in how we communicate, how we do business, how we shop, and how we learn. Smart phones, iPods, PDAs, and wireless devices dominate our lives, and yet it's all too easy for students to take information technology for granted. Rainer and Turban's Introduction to Information Systems, 2nd edition helps make Information Technology come alive in the classroom. This text takes students where IT lives-in today's businesses and in our daily lives while helping students understand how valuable information technology is to their future careers. The new edition provides concise and accessible coverage of core IT topics while connecting these topics to Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Management, Human resources, and Operations, so students can discover how critical IT is to each functional area and every business. Also available with this edition is WileyPLUS - a powerful online tool that provides instructors and students with an integrated suite of teaching and learning resources in one easy-to-use website. The WileyPLUS course for Introduction to Information Systems, 2nd edition includes animated tutorials in Microsoft Office 2007, with iPod content and podcasts of chapter summaries provided by author Kelly Rainer.

Business Law in Ontario Scarborough, Ont. : Prentice Hall Canada Incorporated Canadian Business and the Law, now in its 5th edition, has transformed the teaching and learning of business law across the country. Canadian Business and the Law is constructed on the insight that risk management offers the optimal way of dealing with the legal content of business decisions. Beyond this, Canadian Business and the Law provides an engaging pedagogical vision which speaks to the student perspective by emphasizing real life current examples of the business-law interface. For example, the text relies on boxes featuring the impact of the law on Facebook in a variety of contexts including the liability of Facebook for alleged privacy violations, ownership issues relating to Facebook, the firing of employees for Facebook postings, and evidence provided by Facebook photographs leading to the termination of insurance benefits. Canadian Business and the Law offers an innovative and complete learning platform which builds student success.
