Business Law CLP Legal Practice Guides

This book is written to cover the needs of a six-week module within a core Bachelor of Business Studies paper at Massey University: 'The Legal and Social Environment of Business'. The book will also be of use to those teaching business students awareness of the legal duties of those who do business in New Zealand. The book may also be of use to students who have no law in their undergraduate studies but require an introduction to business law as part of a postgraduate diploma. The legal environment of business is also an important part of MBA programmes and this book should prove handy for students in these programmes who have to grasp the essential aspects of the legal framework of business in a relatively short space of time. Given the constraints of covering a wide range of law topics within a very modest compass, the text adopts a practical approach rather than a theoretical one; it is designed to give students straightforward access to an overview of the legal environment within which businesses in New Zealand must operate.
