Thrown into a life-and-death struggle on the frozen Artic wilderness. Half St. Bernard, half shepard, Buck learns many hard lessons as a sled dog: the lesson of the leash, of the cold, of near-starvation and cruelty. And the greatest lesson he learns from his last owner, John Thornton: the power of love and loyalty. Guy Grieve's life was going nowhere - trapped in a job he hated, commuting 2,000 miles a month and up to his neck in debt. But he dreamed of escaping it all to live alone in one of the wildest, most remote places on earth - Alaska. And just when he'd given up hope, the dream came true. Suddenly Guy was thrown into one of the harshest environments in the world, miles from the nearest human being and armed with only the most basic equipment. And he soon found - whether building a log cabin from scratch, hunting, ice fishing or of course dodging bears in the buff - that life in the wilderness was anything but easy... Part Ray Mears, part Bill Bryson, CALL OF THE WILD is the gripping story of how a mild-mannered commuter struggled with the elements - and himself - and eventually learned the ways of the wild.

'Tongue is a Fire' are words of love, anger and frustration: sometimes spitting vengeance in questioning, sometimes remorseful. All in all, it's a voice that spouts its view. Be it wrong or right, it is said and done. No excuses. The tongue cannot be tamed It is an uncontainable evil full of noxious poison Holler to the depth of hell when your tongue is a fire Quence our verbal abuse drink the water given beneath the sun's rays Look for sunlight on cold water Speak loving words or be dumb control that tongue
