The story starts with two friends, Arjun and Karan. Arjun is a boy who was born with a silver spoon. He is a bookworm, introvert, a bit of an alcoholic who is quite reserved. He never says I don't know or I am sorry. It was my fault.

However, he is invariably negative. On the contrary, Karan, who was born and brought up in harsh family conditions, is helpful, hardworking and open to everyone. He believes in saying I am sorry. It was all my fault. Please let it go. It was destiny that kindled their friendship from school to the active days of engineering. Their paths separate when they plan for their Master's. They drift apart until finally, they're just another contact name on their phonebook. Fortunately, destiny paves the way for them to meet again through Varsha and Megha—two sisters who enter their lives and love begins to blossom. But who loves whom? Who will sacrifice for whom? Will there be a happy ending? Will their Friendship Last Forever? Join their journey and take a walk down the memory lane!

American Stationer and Office Manager Simon and Schuster

'Here in Africa, two wives is nothing. You white people just have affairs. You lie and cheat. At least we're honest.' Lenuta 'Hellen' Nadolu has led a tumultuous life. A strong-willed free spirit, she was born and raised in communist Romania, where women were supposed to know their place. At the age of nineteen, her life changed when she started seeing a handsome African doctor named Victor and fell pregnant. To avoid the wrath of Hellen's domineering father and an unforgiving community, the couple married and then, against everyone's advice, moved to Ghana. But Africa was nothing like Hellen had imagined: Victor considered her merely a possession with few rights and expected her to turn a blind eye to his affairs. Pushed to the brink, she made a desperate decision – she would get a divorce and smuggle her three children out of the country. But no Western woman had ever divorced a Ghanaian man – let alone been granted custody of the children – and Victor's powerful family would not give her up without a fight ... Give Me Courage is an inspiring true story of survival and escape.

Ever since I was sold by my own mother to a trafficker and became a foolish child's daughter-in-law, my life has not been on the right track. He had been abused, tortured, struggled, resisted, wounded, and loved. When I was stepped on like an ant, I clenched my teeth and swore that I would be a supreme being for the rest of my life. In this era of laughing, I dry tears, put on red lipstick, smiling like a flower, shuttling through this bustling city neon. If one day you see a lonely woman crying in the middle of the night on the street, without his words, please hand her half a cigarette.
