The bestselling author of The Best Democracy Money Can Buy offers a globetrotting, Sam Spade-style investigation that blows the lid off the oil industry, the banking industry, and the governmental agencies that aren't regulating either. This is the story of the corporate vultures that feed on the weak and ruin our planet in the process—a story that spans the globe and decades. For Vultures' Picnic, investigative journalist Greg Palast has spent his career uncovering the connection between the world of energy (read: oil) and finance. He's built a team that reads like a casting call for a Hollywood thriller—a Swiss multilingual investigator, a punk journalist, and a gonzo cameraman—to reveal how environmental disasters like the Gulf oil spill, the Exxon Valdez, and lesser-known tragedies such as Tatitlek and Torrey Canyon are caused by corporate corruption, failed legislation, and, most interestingly, veiled connections between the financial industry and energy titans. Palast shows how the International Monetary Fund, World Bank, World Trade Organization, and Central Banks act as puppets for Big Oil. With Palast at the center of an investigation that takes us from the Arctic to Africa to the Amazon, Vultures' Picnic shows how the big powers in the money and oil

game slip the bonds of regulation over
and over again,
and simply
destroy the rules
that they themselves can't write-and take advantage of nations and
everyday people
in the process.

Welcome to St. Mary's, Woodborough's biggest mental institution. Meet

Klaudia and her friends, all determined to get better to get out of here... Or to escape by other ways. They're nightshades- these flowers that evolve from being pale to a deep shade of purple, those plants that evocate dark thoughts and moments, they are born innocent, until all of them grow into something so dark and twisted it's almost unrecognisable. And, in the same manner, life would be taken away from them, much... Much too soon.

Sounding Selves McGraw-Hill Education (UK) Jarvis Langton is an unborn-again Christian living on the fringe. He's not big on life and has tried to finish his own twice. Still, most mornings, he quite likes to sun himself at Sydney's Royal Botanic Gardens. One morning he notices something winking at him from a nearby bush. When he investigates he finds the dead body of his friend, Lady; a Thai transvestite. Jarvis is not someone with his thoughts lined up in any reasonable order. It takes him a while to work out Lady must have been murdered. It takes him longer to decide he's going to find her killer - but once he does, the premonition that finding Lady's murderer will bring him his own end, happens in an instant. Culture is not enough. Both religion and culture are important, even crucial to living a full life, but they are not enough. Choosing authenticity is the only thing that is enough. Our deepest desire is for our active lives to actually become more and more an authentic expression of who we are and who we are called to be by that Mysterious Other we call God. We long for a No BS Spirituality that changes the way we actually experience and live our lives. We need spiritual practice that facilitates that growth and transformation, and conversion of heart. It is my prayer that these reflections will respond to that longing. Read, reflect, and enjoy!
