Fast Starting a Career of Consequence: Workbook Trotman, Limited
This book shows how any college student can land the position they want by creating relationships with professionals in the industries they're interested in by using the author's proven Career Launch Method. Did you know only 20 percent of jobs and internships are posted online? This means 80 percent of positions are filled in what Sean O'Keefe and others call the hidden job market. This book will teach you how to tap into that 80 percent! O'Keefe, in partnership with the Career Leadership Collective, is now sharing his proven eight-step Career Launch Method that will help any student explore career options and land the internships and jobs they want by creating professional relationships from scratch. This book demystifies the concept of intentional, proactive relationship building by teaching all the practical microsteps needed to succeed. And O'Keefe teaches readers how to "play the student card," turning inexperience and eagerness to learn into a powerful advantage. Launch Your Career features first-person stories of students from all backgrounds and programs of study who have used the Career Launch Method to earn jobs or internships at all types of companies, nonprofits, government agencies, social enterprises, and institutions across the country and around the world. The book includes the Career Launch Readiness Assessment, which helps students evaluate their competency in five key areas. This book will become a go-to resource for students looking to find internships and jobs, as well as a needed tool for colleges looking to increase retention rates and student's return on investment.

Self-Managing Your Career CreateSpace
The main objectives of this workbook are to help the readers to identify their strengths, interests, and priorities in order to take ownership of their life and career decisions. This workbook gives the reader a framework to reflect on several questions that are becoming increasingly important among the 21st-century leaders - how to create an authentic leadership style, how to define one's values, and how to align vision-values-career. The readers are given an extensive number of tools for defining their purpose, creating a plan and are being encouraged to take it into action. The core of the workbook is the development of a personal plan, namely "Leader's Journal", very similar to a "business plan" for a venture. Through various exercises, the readers will be able to identify career opportunities aligned with other personal objectives while addressing conflicting goals that appear often in demanding careers. The main target audience of this workbook is first time and mid-level managers, recent graduates and newly established entrepreneurs looking for tools to create a roadmap for their life and career planning. To the Authors' best understanding, business education publishers offer a limited selection of classroom resources for personal and career development courses. Generally, articles and self-help books are fully focused on a topic, however, this workbook would link and cover all the main themes related to personal and career development comprehensively looking at readers' life and work from a helicopter view. The workbook will not only be useful for self-development but will also be relevant for coaches, mentors; trainers who help others achieve their aspirations.
