Meet Casey, a cat who reads minds and solves crimes. Casey the cat is named after a famous baseball player, as his owner, John, loves sports. He is a beautiful Siamese, with sea-blue eyes and a sparkling gray coat, and he knows it. Casey is not lacking in confidence and has zero modesty-not only because he is beautiful and coordinated and excellently proportioned, but because he has a great gift. He can read minds and influence people's thoughts. This delightful book is a second collection of witty stories featuring the sarcastic Casey and the man who rescued him as a kitten-a man who Casey finds interesting, funny, and (most importantly) malleable. From its first issue in April, 1970, the National Lampoon blazed like a comet, defining comedy as we know it today. To create Drunk Stoned Brilliant Dead, former Lampoon illustrator Rick Meyerowitz selected the funniest material from the magazine and sought out the survivors of its first electrifying decade to gather their most revealing and outrageous stories. The result is a mind-boggling tour through the early days of an institution whose alumni left their fingerprints all over popular culture: Animal House, Caddyshack, Saturday Night Live, Ghostbusters, SCTV, Spinal Tap, In Living Color, Ren & Stimpy, The Simpsons—even Sesame Street counts a few Lampooners among its ranks. Long before there was The Onion and Comedy Central news shows, there was the National Lampoon, setting the bar in comedy impossibly high! A very similar title, differing only in the subtitle, was used for the 2015 documentary film, Drunk Stoned Brilliant Dead: The Story of the National Lampoon, for which Rick Meyerowitz designed the poster, as he also did for the 1978 film National Lampoon's Animal House.
