Students are exposed to the challenges and intricacies behind a rebellion against an oppressive state. The vocabulary activities make this resource and the novel accessible for all students. Make predictions about the plot based on what is already known about the characters. Identify statements of the setting as true or false. Describe moments where Katniss questions herself and explain her reasoning. Students put themselves in Katniss' shoes and imagine what she would be thinking when the terms of the Quarter Quell are revealed. Become a Gamedesigner and design the arena for the 100th Hunger Games. Complete a wedge graphic organizer by identifying some of the symbolism found throughout the novel. Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy, additional crossword, word search, comprehension quiz and answer key are also included. About the Novel: Catching Fire follows the events surrounding the dramatic end to The Hunger Games. Katniss and Peeta return home to District 12, where life is much different than when they left. Katniss is reunited with her family, but finds herself distant from Gale and Peeta. When it's time for their Victory Tour, Katniss and Peeta must once again put on a show for the citizens of Panem. During this tour, it becomes clear to both that their display in the arena ignited a rebellion against the Capitol. Katniss now must convince both President Snow and Panem that she is deeply in love with Peeta in order to prove her actions in the games were that of love and not of defiance. With the 75th anniversary of the Hunger Games looming, Katniss learns that her days in the arena are far from over.

God Wants You Prepared for These Perilous Times If you are tuned to the voice of the Holy Spirit, you already know we're living at the end of this last-days age. As people chosen by God to live in this time frame, we are going to experience bizarre developments that no other age has ever witnessed. How do we survive the evil influences being perpetuated through Hollywood, all forms of media, education, government, and the courts? God is not in the business of scaring us, but He is in the business of preparing us to navigate these turbulent times. With the Word of God and the Holy Spirit as our guide, we can do it! In this 15-part series, Rick Renner covers: What the Holy Spirit prophesied about the major signs we 'll see in society at the end of the age. What are the key areas the devil will try to pervert in society? What we need to do to not get caught up in these messes. If you will give your ears to what the Word of God has to say, you will be anointed, prepared, and victorious regardless of the moral confusion of an ever-darkening world.
