Brides of the Kindred - Book Series In Order

In number eleven at the end of the row a slender female figure moved in front of a large picture window—one of the selling points of the otherwise unremarkable houses. She was walking back and forth, placing objects on a table, or perhaps taking them away—maybe cleaning up after dinner. She moved with ease and grace as she did the mundane chore, completely unaware that she was being watched.

Chained: Brides of the Kindred 9: (BBW Alien Romance) ... Evangeline Anderson is without question a very talented writer. I have read many of her books, not just those in the Brides of Kindred series. However, this is the first time I felt compelled to write a review. Maybe because I was so disappointed with the heroine.
