RECOGNITION OVERVIEW.
The revenue
recognition principle
provides that revenue

is to be recognized
when (1) it is realized or realizable and (2)
it is earned. This rule sounds simple enough,
but the many methods of marketing products and services make it
extremely difficult to apply in certain situations.

The first step in the revenue recognition process is the identification of a contract or contracts with the customer. A contract is an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights or obligations. That is, the contract identifies the performance obligations in a revenue arrangement.

CE18-2 According to FASB ASC 605-10-25-3
(Revenue Recognition-Recognition): Revenue
should ordinarily be accounted for at the time a transaction is completed, with appropriate provision for uncollectible accounts. Revenue and gains generally are not recognized until being realized or realizable and until earned.
