Tafsir as Mystical

Experience: Intimacy and Ecstasy in Quran Commentary Trafford Publishing The Quran is the sacred text of Islam. For Muslims, it is the word of the one God. The Quran was revealed to the last prophet and messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) from the year 610 until his death in 632 by the angel Gabriel (ﷺ). According to the Quran, Allah is the author of all the sacred books of the three monotheistic religions that are Islam,	Christianity, and Judaism. He thus revealed the Gospel to the penultimate prophet Jesus and the Torah to the prophet Moses. We read thus in verse 3 of sura 3: "He brought down on you the Book (the Quran) with the truth, confirming the Books descended before him. And He brought down the Torah and the Gospel". However, Islam considers that with the exception of the Quran, all the holy books have been falsified by man. Verse 75 of Sura 2 goes	in this direction: "- Well, do you hope [Muslims] that such people [the Jews] will share your faith with you? while a group of them; after having heard and understood the word of Allah, knowingly falsified it. "This present work is a translation into English of the meaning of the verses of the Quran made by Maulana Wahiduddin Khan. 100+ DUAs (prayers and Supplications) from Quran and Hadith Muhammad Saed Abdul-Rahman

Islamic Art and Spirituality

The American Dream is alive and well in this memoir of a Muslim immigrant from India who arrived planning to start a business, working so hard toward his personal goals that he even pumped gas and sold vacuum cleaners door to door. Victor Begg successfully built a thriving, regional chain of furniture stores. Along the way, he discovered that America's greatest promise lies in building healthy communities with our neighbors. "In one book, I have come to understand much more about Islam, its followers and its teachings," Rabbi Bruce Benson writes in the book's Foreword. "I've come to realize that the challenges Muslim immigrants have faced are similar to what Jews and many other immigrant groups have experienced as they tried to settle in America. By the end of this book, I hurt with Victor and I laugh with him, because—as Americans—we share so much. We are him. His journey is our journey. This is our story." As Victor reached out to others, he used his entrepreneurial skills to co-found a new kind of ethnically diverse mosque as well as influential nonprofits designed to help others. Agreeing to serve as a regional spokesperson for Muslims, he got more than he bargained for—responding to tragedies that included 9/11 and a massacre in a Florida nightclub. "Person by person, friend by friend, good-hearted people change the world," Victor writes in this memoir. His greatest talents turned out to be his ongoing ability to invite all of us to open our hearts, roll up our sleeves and reach out to help each other. "We need stories of our Muslim neighbors like Victor Begg to break down the walls that separate us and to educate us about those who might seem so strange, at first, but might become heart friends if given the chance," writes the Rev. Daniel L. Buttry in the book's Preface. "Along the way, we might discover some true American heroes. Victor is just such a hero: selfless, ordinary, but willing to risk to make our nation and our world a better place.” In this era when media outlets echo with extremist claims demonizing immigrants and Muslims, in particular, readers will discover how much American families share in our diversity of faiths and ethnicities. “A lot of foggy information clouds the American brain concerning Muslims. Victor’s representative story, his steady, 40-year love affair with America, blows much of it away,” writes Michael Wolfe, a filmmaker and author of One Thousand Roads to Mecca. “This book’s importance really is global, considering how often migrants, refugees and Muslims in particular are demonized by extremists around the world,” writes Larbi Mageri, a Muslim journalist based in Algeria who is a co-founder of the International Association of Religion Journalists. “One of the biggest challenges for Muslims who have never visited the U.S. is getting a clear sense of how Muslims live there in these turbulent times. There are so many conflicting claims and stories about life in the U.S. Through reading Victor’s true stories, I was able to experience American life for Muslims—without ever leaving my home. The lasting impression I am left with, after reading Victor’s memoir, is that anyone would be lucky to have a Muslim neighbor like this living next door.” Ultimately, Victor invites readers to pray with him: “God bless America.” As you follow him along this remarkable journey, as you catch his vision of a vibrant America—you are likely to find your own family and your own values mirrored in his story. You’re likely to want to share this book with friends and join in building a better world.

This is the first book in the English language to deal with the spiritual significance of Islamic art including not only the plastic arts, but also literature and music. Rather than only dealing with the history of the various arts of Islam or their description, the author relates the form, content, symbolic language, meaning, and presence of these arts to the very sources of the Islamic revelation. Relying upon his extensive knowledge of the Islamic religion in both its exoteric and esoteric dimensions as well as the various Islamic sciences, the author relates Islamic art to the inner dimensions of the Islamic revelation and the spirituality which has issued from it. He brings out the spiritual significance of the Islamic arts ranging from architecture to music as seen, heard, and experienced by one living within the universe of the Islamic tradition. In this work the reader is made to understand the meaning of Islamic art for those living within the civilization which created it.

This study analyzes ritual and domestic water use in a rural and an urban community in West Java, Indonesia. This is an area where water quantity and quality is a problem. The focus is on people who live at the edge of Citarum River, one of the most polluted rivers in the world. Most people there are Muslim. What is the relation between people's perceptions of pollution (of Upper Citarum River) and purification (in Islamic teaching) and their practices of water use. It studies the perceptions of pollution and purification of Sundanese Muslims in West Java and the effects of those perceptions on practices of domestic and ritual water use. Making a discourse analysis of local narratives the study argues that most people don't see pollution as problematic. For them it has become normal. They make a distinction between clean water (in medical sense) and pure water (in ritual sense).

Abdul-Rahman
The translation of this Quran has been inspired and revealed to the messenger by the Lord of the Universe with intricate and coded proofs and revelations, that were never revealed before in the past to anyone. The Quran was originally revealed to Muhammad, as the Prophet and Messenger of Allah over 1400 years ago. The entire mathematically coded Quran with 114 chapters and 6346 verses with the names of the chapters were revealed to him over 23 years in Arabic language and script, without granting him the knowledge or information about the coded mathematical Marvel enshrined in the scripture. The prophet was not granted any kind of Miracle, other than the Quran, (29:50-51) as the Quran itself was a miracle with the unique structure, layout, the spellings of words, and the sequence and order of the revelations. In fact, Allah has specifically mentioned "Allah Alone" and "Muhammad" a precise number of times that is further bolstered by Allah's miracles between the Author of the Quran and the one to whom the Quran was revealed. The 5 verses that mention Allah Alone are 7:70, 39:45, 40:12, 40:84, and 60:4. The 4 verses that mention Muhammad by name are 3:144, 33:40, 47:2, and 48:29. Revealed: There are 5 verses in	which "Allah Wahdahoo - Allah Alone" appear and 4 verses in which "Muhammad" appear - the difference is 1, Praise be to Allah. Astounding Miracle: In the 5 aforementioned verses that mention Allah Alone, the Allah letters for each verse are 23, 26, 23, 20, and 73 - the sum is perfectly 165, Subhan Allah, revealing and proving that Allah is the Absolute and that He is the only One "La Elaha Ella Allah." Alhamdo	Lillah. Phenomenal Miracle: In the 4 aforementioned verses that mention Muhammad, the Allah letters for each verse are 35, 24, 26, and 80 - the sum is again 165, Subhan Allah, revealing and proving the Absoluteness of Allah who revealed the mathematically coded Quran to the prophet and messenger Muhammad. The prophet was not informed of the miracles embedded in the Quran; they were to be revealed in later generations. This
