Before you look at the self-absorbed narcissistic mother, it is important to know what makes a "good mother". I consider that I had a wonderful, magical mother, a woman who loved being in the company of her children above all else, and was willing to give quality time to each of her children, and make happy memories that would last us a lifetime. But she was not silly, she knew each of us ...

A self-absorbed person doesn't have the ability or the willingness to put themselves in someone else's shoes or share their pain. They think the world (and you) exists for their benefit and needs and have little concern about how others are affected. 6. Self-centered people focus more on superficial qualities than character.
