The Armor of God prepares the Christian - especially the new believer - for spiritual warfare. Understanding the nature and significance of each piece of armor will enable a believer not only to safeguard against becoming a casualty; it will strengthen a believer's soul-winning efforts. Like it or not, we are at war and we must stand tall! Part of God's strategy is to place believers directly in harm's way. We must resist the enemy and cause him to flee (James 4:7). We must strive to establish a "beachhead" in enemy territory, a model of the coming greater Kingdom of God.

In a day when society has in many ways placed itself under Satan's rule, when Satanism is flourishing in Western nations, when certain branches of the church are preoccupied with "deliverance ministries," and when others deny the devil's existence, Fighting Satan is a sober, practical perspective on this vital subject. Joel R. Beeke states, "We must know our enemy. We must know how to withstand him and what spiritual weapons to take up against him. We must defeat him by faith through lives that bear fruit and spread the truth." With questions for reflection and discussion at the close of each chapter, Fighting Satan is ideal for group and individual Bible study. Table of Contents: Part One – Knowing the Enemy: The Personality and History of Satan 1. Satan in the Bible 2. Satan in Church History, Today, and the Future Part Two – Knowing Satan's Weaknesses: Fighting Him Defensively and Offensively 3. Building an Unyielding Defense 4. Building an Attacking Offense Part Three – Knowing Satan's Strategies: His Devices and Their Remedies 5. Satan's Strategies and Skill 6. Confronting Four Major Strategies of Satan Part Four – Knowing Satan's Defeat in Our Personal Lives, Churches, and Nations 7. Our Challenge as Believers 8. Our Challenge as Church Members 9. "Here is a no-nonsense theologian who goes for the jugular. In Forsyth's company we are aware of both the glory and the gravity of what we are doing when we go to our knees in prayer." -Eugene H. Peterson P. T. Forsyth is sometimes described as an English pre-cursor to Karl Barth. He was born in 1848 to a Scottish family of humble origins and later in life attended Aberdeen University, where he graduated with first-class honours in classical literature in 1869. In 1876 he was ordained and called to minister in Shipley, Yorkshire. In his early ministry in the Congregational Church, Forsyth fought orthodoxy and sought for the right to rethink Christian theology and pursue liberal thought. In 1878, however, Forsyth experienced a conversion from, in his own words, "being a Christian to being a believer, from a lover of love to an object of grace." A profound awareness of pastoral responsibility was awakened which radically altered the the course of his ministry. His conversion thrust him from the leadership of liberalism to a recovery of the theology of grace. Quickly, he became one of the better-known figures in British Nonconformity. In 1894, he received a call to Emmanuel College in Cambridge, where he preached his famous sermon, "Holy Father" in 1896. In 1901, he accepted a position as principal of Hackney Theological College, London where he remained until he died in 1921. Over his lifetime Forsyth published 25 books and more than 260 articles. He is often credited with recovering for his generation the reality and true dimensions of the grace of God.

"When we hear the phrase "spiritual warfare," we often think of angels and demons, exorcisms, and demonic encounters. But spiritual warfare also includes the battles we face in everyday life--battles of temptation, doubt, and anxiety. This book will help Christians, especially those who are going through times of struggle, to recognize the spiritual roots of their hardships and to fight against the devil's schemes in the only way that works--with the weapons God gives us in Christ. Both instructional and devotional, each chapter focuses on a piece of the armor of God (Ephesians 6) and how we are equipped in Christ to resist the evil one in our everyday lives. With God's help, readers will find healing, understanding, and peace"--

Leonard Ravenhill presents prayer as faith in action in this fast-paced presentation of this crucial subject. He called prayer the most essential ingredient in producing revival. Filled with exhortations and illustrations, it teaches the art of effective praying--which will result in revival. Moody Monthly said, "This is a plea for praying that will melt the preacher's heart, move the people, and magnify the Lord Jesus."

All Christians will have to deal with spiritual warfare at some point in their life. The Armor of God is written to remind the Christian believer first of all that they have power and then to remind them of the power that they have. Second, it instructs them of who their foes are. Often times, the believer will look at an individual not realizing that their foe is not specifically an individual. Finally, the Armor of God instructs the believer about the Armor of a soldier and a Christian. We are soldiers in the army of the Lord. In order to properly engage in spiritual warfare, one must be prepared for battle.

You've been caught wearing only your underwear again. Pages have been written attempting to interpret these nightmares where we suddenly find ourselves walking out in public naked. Our worst fears trickle into our subconscious minds, and when we close our eyes, we relive these fears again and again. What if these weren't dreams? We leave our homes every day fully clothed, but --in the spiritual realm and in Satan's eyes--many of us are still naked. When our clothing choices do not include the Armor of God, Satan claps because he knows that he can spin his webs and win. God's armor is made available to everyone, but so is the decision we are asked to make. Just like a strong-willed child fighting the parent who is forcing them into a winter coat, God knows that if He is the parent forcing us into His armor, our demeanor will be less than warrior-like. Because of this, He allows us to make the choice as to whether or not we want to be fully armed or completely naked. Let's walk through each piece of armor and grow in our understanding of the depth of love the author and designer of this armor has for you. Satan wants you blinded from this truth, so like a strong-willed child, let's open The Full Armor of God, turn its pages, and fight like a warrior against the enemy whose only desire is to seek, kill, and destroy those whom God loves.

Put on your armor-it's time to fight. We are in a spiritual war, William Gurnall reminds us, and "the Christian's safety lies in resisting. All the armour provided is to defend the Christian fighting, none to secure him flying; stand, and the day is ours; fly or yield, and all is lost."Sitting it out is not an option. "Many there are that have nothing to prove themselves Christians but a naked profession, of whom we may say as they do of the cinnamon tree, that the bark is more worth than all they have besides."This hard-hitting volume is packed with biblical wisdom for day-to-day Christian living, as helpful today as it was when first published nearly four hundred years ago. Although history left us little knowledge of William Gurnall's life, it preserved his book—a legacy that has encouraged many generations of saints to fight sin, love Christ, and live holy and faithful lives as Christians who have clothed themselves in the complete armor of God. "Amongst all the Puritan writings that have come down to us, none?are more practical than this one." - Hamilton SmithWilliam Gurnall (1616-79) was born in King's Lynn, Norfolk, and received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Cambridge University. From 1644 until his death, he served as rector of St. Peter and St. Paul's Church, Lavenham, Suffolk. During a period of violent civil unrest in England, Gurnall preached a series of messages on the topic of spiritual warfare. These he published in 1665 as The Christian in Complete Armour, which went through six editions in his lifetime and has been republished countless times since.
