Training is an integral component of career preparation within the Central Intelligence Agency's (CIA) Directorate of Intelligence (DI). Employees of the CIA's Directorate of Intelligence are called upon to provide timely and accurate intelligence analysis to the President, the Cabinet, and senior policymakers within the United States government.

The U.S. Army and CIA interrogation manuals are seven controversial military training manuals which were declassified by the Pentagon in 1996. In 1997, two additional CIA manuals were declassified in response to a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request filed by The Baltimore Sun. The manuals in question have been referred to by various media sources as the "torture manuals".
