Company Resolutions: What are They? | SingaporeLegalAdvice.com

A certified corporate resolution is a resolution made at a directors' or shareholders' meeting that has been approved by the secretary and president of the corporation. This type of resolution is useful if a bank or other external organization ever requires verification to permit specific actions or powers, such as the authority to sign documents on behalf of the corporation.

Company resolutions - the different types explained

Company resolutions can be passed by 2 groups of people: Shareholders;

Board of directors; When shareholders make a formal decision, it is known as a shareholder resolution. When the board of directors makes a formal decision, it is known as a board resolution. However, in a company which has only one shareholder, a resolution is passed by the shareholder recording the resolution and signing the record.

What to Include in a Corporate Resolution

A resolution is a formal way in which a company can note
decisions that are made at a meeting of company members.

There are two types
of resolutions:
ordinary and special.
Under the

Corporations Act 2001, most of the decisions that affect a company need to be made by a resolution.
