The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a teaching document approved by Pope John Paul II. It is designed to provide a summary of Catholic teachings and to serve as a basis for further study. The Catechism is available in a variety of formats and is widely used by Catholics around the world.

The Catechism is organized into two main sections: the first section provides a summary of Catholic teaching on the most important topics, while the second section offers a more detailed treatment of each topic. The Catechism is intended to be accessible to people of all ages and levels of knowledge, and it includes references to other works for further study.

The Catechism is an important resource for Catholics and for anyone interested in learning more about Catholic teaching. It is a valuable introduction to the Catechism of the Catholic Church and provides a positive, coherent and contemporary map for our spiritual journey.
catechetical addictions and obsessions which have bedeviled the catechetical world. It is unique in its origin, emerging from a 'catechetical friendship', encouraged by Cardinal Schönborn, between three institutions working in an authentic Catholic catechetical tradition. The three authors display a deep trust and love for the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church – words that hold a rich heritage and can be pondered lovingly and searchingly, since they are for our good, for everyone's good.
