50 Compelling Argumentative Essay Topics

Constructing an argument. When writing an essay it is essential to construct an argument. An argument is a particular stand on an issue or question. It is made up of a series of claims. There are two types of claim:

Broadly speaking, the construction of scholarly argument can be divided into two principle components: affirmation and refutation. Whereas the former asserts a certain point (i.e. "this is so"), the latter disputes a certain point (i.e. "this is not so").

Constructing An Argument Paper

An academic argument is your stance, your claim, or your take on your topic. This stance, claim, or take is your contribution to the current conversation on your topic and provides your readers with a position, perspective, and/or point of view on your topic. An academic argument is also based in the research, what we often call "evidence-based."
