Contract Law Oxford University Press

This book provides invaluable assistance to all those facing coursework assignments or examinations in contract law. It provides the student with an easy method of identifying all the main points in a particular area, whilst teaching by illustration the skills needed to write good answers to contract questions. The questions and answers cover all the main areas dealt with in undergraduate and PGDL contract courses. This edition, which contains several completely new questions, has been fully revised to take account of recent developments. The most important of these are the House of Lords decisions in Royal Bank of Scotland v Etridge (No 2) (2001) (undue influence) and Farley v Skinner (2001) (damages for non-pecuniary loss), and the Court of Appeal decision in Great Peace Shipping Ltd v Tsavliris Salvage (International) Ltd (2002) (mistake). In the area of contract formation, the Consumer Protection (Distance Selling) Regulations 2000 and the European Directive on Electronic Commerce 2000 are both fully covered, and the developing area of contracting over the internet is dealt with in detail. Contract Law. Questions on the Law of Contracts, with Notes to the Answers Oxford University Press, USA Blackstone's Law Questions and Answers Series gives students the opportunity to practise their exam techniques and evaluate and assess their progress. This new edition of Blackstone's QandA on Contract Law has been fully revised to offer comprehensive and up to date coverage of all the essential aspects of the law. The ideal revision aid, it is divided into chapters covering each major topic, and contains fifty questions and answers designed to test even the best prepared student. Each chapter contains an introduction focusing on important legal aspects and points of interest. After each question there is a commentary which highlights the essential elements of each question, and bullet pointed answer plans to illustrate what the examiners are looking for. This gives students an insight into the law of contract and instant confidence to face assessment. In light of recent legal developments the new edition has a rewritten chapter on 'Mistake' with new questions and commentary to guide students through the topic. Companion web site The new edition has an accompanying companion web site with web links to useful external web sites and a glossary of key terms, essential for students studying contract law.

This student-friendly study guide offers a clear, concise and complete explanation of contract law through skillful use of multiple-choice questions. Addressing all topics covered in standard first-year contract courses, it provides an expository review of key points of law and illustrative scenarios, followed by probing multiple-choice questions. All possible answers are deconstructed through careful explanation and analysis, leading the student through the logic of why the correct answer was correct and, importantly, why the others were not. Important test-taking techniques and tactics receive thorough coverage throughout the text, making The Glannon Guide to Contracts an invaluable aid for first-year students trying to navigate the complexities of contract law. Distinguishing features of The Glannon Guide to Contracts: Highly accessible, user-friendly style that immediately engages students.

Comprehensive coverage of all first-year law contract course material. A thorough, expository review of the key points of law precede all questions and prepares students to answer and learn from the multiple choice questions it incorporates. Skillfully crafted multiple-choice questions are challenging but wholly answerable by one who has mastered the preceding text. All answers are deconstructed through clear, elaborate analyses showing why the right answer is right and the wrong answers are wrong. Provides tactics and strategies for converting substantive mastery to correct answers on multiple-choice questions. Invaluable exam-taking tactics and techniques set forth at various strategic points within the text. Flexible approach is equally useful to all students, whether their professors administer multiple-choice exams, essay exams, or both. Each chapter concludes with a "Closer," - a particularly challenging question that encourages students to push their mastery of the topic to a more sophisticated level. "Closing Closers" appear in the book's final chapter, cumulatively addressing all concepts covered in the text

Construction professionals of all kinds frequently need legal advice that is straightforward as well as authoritative and legally rigorous. Building on the success of two previous editions, David Chappell returns to provide answers to 225 FAQs from his experience as Specialist Advisor to the RIBA. With 50 new questions, and thorough updates to address changes to the law and contracts, this is an invaluable first port of call for any construction law problem. Questions range in content from extensions of time, liquidated damages and loss and/or expense to issues of practical completion, defects, valuation, certificates and payment, architects' instructions, adjudication and fees. Among the new questions are: Is the contractor bound by its price even if there is an error? How do terms about working in a spirit of trust affect other clauses? Can architects lose their rights to certify under JCT 2011 contracts? Every question included has been asked of David Chappell during his career, and he uses his vast experience to provide clear, easy to follow advice in this book. Most were originally asked by architects, but the answers will be of wide interest to everyone involved in construction.
