The 3rd case book I compiled after researching and writing Kim Scott Neufeld CA/LLB's Trusts and Estates and Partnerships and Joint Ventures of '87-93('12-'16). Was started in 2016 immediately after bringing up to date those two previous. ...a little bit useless if you know how to investigate case law through CANLII.org, tho quite a few don't so this is why I compiled it. I only do things out of love, regardless of the hurt I've receive/received - I'm sort of like an old dog who always has that attitude of that new puppy-dog who has just has eyes for you. This book came about DIRECTLY for the persistent feelings I had for the Cdn taxpayer that I gained back in '87-16 as I read about the constructs of ITA application to trusts/estates - partnerships/joint ventures. I studied the fine line of where selfish taxpayers would try to take advantage of the inadequacies of our elected officers and their counsel in the never-ending stupid game of having to formulate better legislation to meet it: over something that we should all so sacredly hold as a foundational duty to "pay forward" to our fellow man, if we make it - it's a "cost of existing" in Canada. That's why you'll never find me "practicing a loop-hole" or aperture - even though I trained myself in its language, that is persistent to this day. (My Concordia U. Accounting Prof, Gail Fayerman, said it so well in her Accounting II Course in '88 where "tax is just a cost of doing business in Cda." as she diligently explained about its corporate accounting treatment and its intricacies.) This book has as its source Kim Scott Neufeld of Winnipeg. I wouldn't have studied tax except for Her. She was the reason I was even in the law library following the "case Amazon" to understand its scope. I wanted to be a lawyer when I met Kim, as the Sessional Tax Professor who as a CA I mistook for a lawyer already by the distinctive high manner by which she thoroughly thought, gently spoke, honestly encouraged, as he taught THE LAW of income tax, like a lawyer. I consider Her my first law professor. Kim went on after Concordia U to obtain her LL.B at McGill Law in '93, during which she was an Editor of its MLJ, and ended up spending 16 years placing Chairs/senior counsel as a Director at Mestel/Hire-Counsel in NYC, across the USA. I fell in love with everything that Kim came to embody, always Excellently demonstrated to me, from contact: a long long line of A+'s, that amaze me, as I've run out of questions to ask. Myself, from my work here on Googlebooks and in some other physical places, you should know I'm very bi-polar (and a slightly stronger mental illness) - and that maybe has been an asset as opposed to a ruinous liability - but did I get a lot done with that. Law libraries are a GREAT PLACE to focus, with in-love persistence, all of that. And my heart, that someday I hope to talk with Kim Neufeld - not having seen the individual since '92 at CDH - about getting back.
