Crime Classification Manual A Standard
A signature crime is a crime which exhibits characteristics idiosyncratic to specific criminals, known as signature aspects, signature behaviours or signature characteristics. Where a modus operandi (MO) concerns the practical components of a crime which can also be unique to one suspect, signature aspects fulfill a psychological need and, unlike the MO, do not often change.

In Crime Classification Manual: A Standard System for Investigating and Classifying Violent Crime, Douglas et al describe where this book came from, which informs the entire rest of the discussion. Earlier on in profiling, there was a general attempt to work with the DSM III (now V), the Diagnostic and Statistics Manual (APA), which was itself intended to help standardize diagnoses' in psychiatric disciplines.
