Janis Joplin - Cry Baby (Audio)

With Cry Baby I think David Jackson has managed a very successful psychological thriller addition within his series. To write this type of story many other series authors I think would feel the need to break out of their series and go with a different cast with a standalone book.

Cry Baby is Tristan, a boy who is born into the "Fifty-Seven" which is one of the gangs running the very poor neighbourhood where Tristan is currently growing up. He is destined to one day run the gang as his father was a founder but Tristan soon realises what a nightmare he is part of and is desperate to escape but knows the only way that will probably happen is if he is killed.

A real highpoint of the publishing year for me, is a new addition to David Jackson 's excellent Detective Callum Doyle series. But fear not, gentle (but criminally minded) reader, if you have not sampled the wares of Mr Jackson before, because Cry Baby proves an easy entry point into the pre-existing series, and then you can relish the experience of playing catch-up with the others.
