drama adaptation of one of my favorite novels in recent memory, Da Mo Yao (translated as Ballad of the Desert), by Tong Hua. Da Mo Yao – Dramapenchant After the SWAK miniseries fiasco, I shifted my attention to the upcoming Tang Ren's period drama, Da Mo Yao or Ballad of the Desert. At first, I wasn't too interested in this production when I heard Hu Ge and Liu

Shishi would portray the main couple, playing Huo Qubing and Jin Yu respectively. Da Mo Yao/Ballad of the Desert and Casting ...

Novel yang mau gue bahas kali ini adalah novel dari Tong Hua (salah satu penulis fave gue), dengan judul Da Mo Yao atau Ballad of The Desert. "During the Western Han Dynasty period, wolf girl Yu Jin is saved by a Han man under Western Xiong Nu's Chanyu. Following him in the learning of literate and martial arts, grew up alongside the princes of the Chanyu. Book Review: Da Mo Yao (Ballad of The Desert) by Tong Hua ...

My takeaways from marathoning Da Mo Yao (Ballad of the Desert) the novel this weekend are this: (1) General Huo Qu Bing is about to become the best character Hu Ge has ever played in his career (EVER) and

(2) oh my lordy was that a love story (and love triangle) for the ages. Between squealing, gasping, holding my breath, and then crying tears (whether happy or sad, I'll play coy and not ...

Ballad of the Desert - Wikipedia

Ballad of the Desert (also known as Damo Yao, or "???) is a two-volume Chinese Han Dynasty romance novel written by author Tong Hua. Both parts were published by Henan Literature Publishers sequentially in 2006 and 2007. This novel is the first in the Love in the Han Dynasty trilogy. A notable feature of the series is the intertwining of the characters' stories between volumes, even though each novel is also a story in its own right.
