Dark Summit | Nick Heil | Macmillan

Thankfully Dark summit is relatively well-written, with only a modicum of cliché, so the story is free to breathe. The apogee of the tale is the description and discussion of the death of David Sharp, a lone climber who was found in a near-death state high on the mountain by members of Brice's expedition.

Dark Summit: The True Story Of Everest's Most ...

While Into Thin Air remains the benchmark for literature on Everest, Heil's Dark Summit is an offering worthy of mention in the same sentence. Heil meticulously re-creates the events of 2006, piecing together his story from an extensive body of interviews with the climbers involved.
