Alison Sinclair (born 1959) is a British writer of science fiction, resident in Canada. She is the author of the Darkborn trilogy of novels and other works and is a medical doctor.

Darkborn Trilogy 1 Alison Sinclair Shadowborn, by Alison Sinclair, is the final book in the Darkborn Trilogy. Unfortunately, I am one of those who really didn't enjoy this story as much as the first two. It was a convoluted story that took the identity of something that appeared to have been thrown together in order to finish the series.

1) eBook ...

The action really ramps up in this 2nd vol of Sinclair's trilogy. The first book introduced us to the world of Darkborn and Lightborn, with almost all of the action and intrigue occurring on the Dark side. This second book introduces us to the major Lightborn--the rulers, the court and, most importantly, the mages.

Darkborn Series by Alison Sinclair - Goodreads Alison Sinclair is an assured writer in full control of her story. And what a story it is. The Lightborn and the Darkborn co-exist in the city of Minhorne--the Lightborn by day and the Darkborn by night.

Alison Sinclair (author) - Wikipedia

The Darkborn grant her asylum, but intrigue in both the light and the dark, including an attempt on Fejelis's life, make it clear that Floria and her allies are far from safe. Sinclair's sometimes stiff Regency prose style and large cast can be a struggle for readers, but the promise of an exciting confrontation will encourage them to persevere through the trilogy's conclusion.

Darkborn (Darkborn Trilogy, #1) by Alison Sinclair

The Lightborn and Darkborn live amongst each other, sharing a city and with carefully designed houses that allow communication between the two groups, but never anything more. Author Sinclair has put an astonishing amount of thought into her world-building and the effect will almost certainly please the reader.
