A pop star. A porn star. What could possibly go wrong? When Rachel Taylor finds out a porn star will be dancing beside her in her upcoming music video, she is not happy. The pop princess hasn't clawed her back from near obscurity to be a laughing stock all over again. Especially not if that includes sharing a stage with the infamous Buck Harder. The minute she meets Buck, though, the chemistry between them sizzles, and before long, she wants to share more than a stage with him. But there's more to Lee, the man behind the stage name, than the reason he's so successful in his career. About the time Rachel starts getting to know Lee, though, the music video is released with disastrous results. Her record label, hell bent on cleaning up the image they've created, doesn't want her anywhere near Buck Harder. Thanks to Rachel's ironclad contract, they have the power to keep them apart. Except Rachel didn't make it this far without a stubborn streak, and no amount of distance or interference can keep her from Lee, even if they have to keep it a secret. But with the label and paparazzi watching her like a hawk, she can only keep this a secret for so long. And when the truth comes out, she'll have to choose: the career she's vowed not to lose again, or the man can't help falling for? This 75,000 word novel was previously published.
