Decoding Your Dog is a well written book by some of the top Animal Behaviourists in the world. The format is excellent, easy to find answers to particular questions, excellent reference. Knowledge is science based and up to date. Interesting and easy to read, I recommend it highly.

Decoding Your Dog by American College of Veterinary ...

Decoding your Dog is a decent book as an introduction to dog training and behavior. It summarizes the main points that you will read in more detail in other books. I think the biggest draw back is the level of redundancy found throughout the chapters. This is most likely in part, due to the fact that several people are writing this book.

Decoding Your Dog: The Ultimate Experts Explain Common Dog ...
Decoding Your Dog is a new book from the American College of Veterinary Behaviorists, edited by D. Horowitz and J. Ciribassi, and it has a lot going for it. I have some quibbles too, but let ' s start with the good news. Without question the best part of the book is its continual reminder to dog owners that 1) you don ' t need to get " dominance " over your dog to train it, and that 2) most ...
