Demon was the first book of Tosca Lee's I read. I bought several of Tosca's books at a book signing I attended and had trouble deciding which to read first. Demon reached out to me, and I chose it. And I wasn't disappointed in my choice. Demon grips you from the first paragraph and doesn't let you go until the closing of the book.

Demon A Memoir Tosca Lee

Secondly, Tosca Lee is a talented writer. I'm amazed that Demon is a debut novel. Her descriptions, dialogue, characterization and level of tension are top notch. I will reread Demon when I have time to read at a pace where I can slow down and savor the rich sensory details. Thirdly, Demon is haunting.

About - Tosca Lee

Tosca Lee's Demon: A Memoir is an engaging, thought-provoking book, I had to set with it for a few days after finishing this exquisite story. The story follows Clay, a divorced editor whose wife left him for another man and Lucian, who is determined to have his personal story told. The demon's perspective was both unnerving and sympathetic.
