installment in
Alex
Rutherford's Empire of the Moghul series.
1530, Agra,
Northern
India.
Humayun, the newly-crowned
second Moghul
Emperor, is a fortunate man.
His father, Babur, has bequeathed him
wealth, glory
and an empire
which stretches
a thousand miles south
from the Khyber pass; he must now build on his legacy, and make the Moghuls worthy of their forebear, Tamburlaine.

But,
unbeknownst to him, Humayun is already in grave danger. His half-brothers are plotting against him; they doubt that he has the strength, the will, the brutality
needed to command the Moghul armies
and lead them to still-greater
glories.
Perhaps they are right. Soon Humayun will be locked in a terrible battle:
not only for his crown, not only for his life, but for the existence of the very empire itself.
