Destined Havoc (Havoc #1)(10) Nina Levine. I tapped my fingers on the steering wheel and searched for good music on the radio. Shit, all three stations I tried were playing shit music and I turned it off in disgust. I really needed to get my CD player fixed in my car, but it was an old bomb of a car so I was loathe to spend money on it. Destined Havoc (Havoc #1) read online free by Nina Levine

Destined Havoc (Havoc
#1)(21) Nina Levine. Carla “Carla!” Nash yelled out from the front door. Bloody hell, I had the headache of all headaches, and his yelling was only going to make it worse. Velvet and I had gone out drinking last night, and I’d ended up with a hangover this morning.
Thankfully it had eased somewhat but the headache
...
The driver behind honked again, multiple times. Havoc scowled before straightening and glaring at the driver. I took the opportunity to open the door and get out. Another honk came from behind and Havoc stalked to the other car. I watched as he had words with the driver—angry words by the look of it. I then watched as he stalked back to me.
