OK, so I've had this EP91 for almost a year now. Bought it off a guy who just used it to get to work at Sydney Uni and back, genuinely looked after and only the second owner (as per RTA records), so it hasn't been screwed around with. The first problem I had was that I was having a miss on No1 cylinder. I found this out when I connected my timing light to the No1 ignition lead closest to the ...
