Milorad Pavi , quote from Dictionary of the Khazars (Male Edition) " A bird foraging for food in the swamps and marshes sinks rapidly if it doesn't move. It has to keep pulling its feet out of the mire to move on, regardless of whether it has caught something or not. And the same applies to us and to our love.

Dictionary of the Khazars -

The Khazars were a warlike and nomadic tribe that settled between the Caspian and Black Seas sometime in the seventh century CE.

Their once-powerful empire, however, collapsed following their leader's decision to have one of his dreams interpreted by three different scholars, one Jewish, one Christian and the other Moslem.
