TechTV's Digital Video 101 is the ultimate guide for anyone interested in the field of digital video. Readers learn what digital video is and how it differs from and surpasses analog video; what kind of digital camcorder fits their needs (one chip vs three chip, compact vs. medium sized, etc.); what kind of computer fits their needs (turnkey, custom built, major PC brand, etc.); how best to shoot their videos (shutter speed, lighting, progressive vs.

interlaced, etc.); what software to use and how to use it; best output options (video email, web video, Video CD, VHS); shopping tips, and the future of digital video editing. The book is packed with real-world projects for the reader to practice. Deras Flynn is the Founder/Editor-in-Chief of Multimediaman.com, a technology webzine dedicated to multimedia creators and enthusiasts. Flynn has worked intermittently as a freelance videographer and amateur filmmaker since buying his first prosumer Hi-8 camcorder in 1990. He went on to Video Production Training at Northern Virginia Cable Access TV Station and started PCvideomaker.com in 1999 because there were so few resources on videography, especially videography on a computer. Later he merged into Multimediaman.com.
