ERIC - ED456672 - Discourse Analysis for Language Teachers ... Writing teachers have been focusing on discourse structures in their classrooms since the 1960s when teaching moved from the sentence level to the discourse level with the introduction of a focus on rhetorical functions in the teaching of second language writing. Examples of rhetorical functions include descriptions, narratives, definitions, exemplifications, classifications, compare and contrast, and cause and effect.

Discourse analysis is concerned with intended meaning and sequential relationships transmitted within context, while pragmatics is concerned with the interpreted meaning from linguistic processing...
