Public service announcement - Wikipedia

Public service announcements, or PSA's, are short messages produced on film or audio file and given to radio and television stations.

Generally, PSA's are sent as ready-to-air audio or video files, although radio stations (especially community or public stations, such as campus radio or National Public Radio affiliates) sometimes prefer a script that their announcers can read live on the air.

A public service announcement (PSA) is a message in the public interest disseminated without charge, with the objective of raising awareness of, and changing public attitudes and behavior towards, a social issue. In the UK, they are generally called 'public information films' (PIFs); in Hong Kong, they are known as 'announcements in the public interest' ('APIs').
