It is no small gift. It is not the least reason why we should honor as well as love the dog of our own life, and the dog down the street, and all the dogs not yet born. What would the world be like without music or rivers or the green and tender grass? What would this world be like without dogs?" ? Mary Oliver, Dog Songs

Oliver was a lifelong dog lover, and dogs would often stray into view in her lyrical observations of life. Her dog Percy, a rescue whom Oliver immortalized in her celebrated "Percy" poems—was described by the poet as "a mixture of gravity and waggery." Oliver collected her dog poems in Dog Songs, published in 2013. We meet Bear, who ...
