Author, Barbara

Freethy, takes us

back to the beach

in an emotional

love story between

two best friends

who have been

separated for a very long time. Alexa

Parker and Braden

Elliott fell in love

when they were

twelve years old.

On a summer day,

while searching for

sea glass on the

beaches of

Washington State,

they discovered an

unusually shaped

blue bottle. The

ever-imaginative

Alexa declared it a

genie's bottle.

Popping the cork,

they were surprised

by a rogue wave

that sprayed them

with a fine, cool

mist. Closing their eyes, they each

made a wish ...

Before their love

had a chance to grow, life, family

and tragedy

separated the two

best friends. Now

fifteen years later,

Alexa returns to

Sand Harbor after

her aunt is injured

in a mysterious

break-in at her

antique store.

Braden is also back,

but he's not the

innocent boy Alexa

remembers. His

military service has

left him with

physical and

emotional scars.

Can the sweet love

of youth be

recaptured by two

now cynical souls?

Can solving the

mystery of the past

bring them to a new future? Or will it

take a wish, maybe

two ... "Alexa &

Braden and their

story is romantic,

funny and a little

magical. I really enjoyed it." Lisa —

She finds out - Goodreads	she is an author, journalist, activist, and advocate for social justice. In LIVING WITH A WILD GOD, she recounts her quest- beginning in childhood-to find "the Truth" about the universe and everything else: What's really going on? Why are we here? In middle age, she rediscovered the journal she had kept during her tumultuous adolescence, which records	an event so strange, so cataclysmic, that she had never, in all the intervening years, written or spoken about it to anyone. It was the kind of event that people call a "mystical exp erience"-and, to a steadfast atheist and rationalist, nothing less than shattering. In LIVING WITH A WILD GOD, Ehrenreich reconstructs her childhood	mission, bringing an older woman's wry and erudite perspective to a young girl's impassioned obsession with the questions that, at one point or another, torment us all. The result is both deeply personal and cosmically sweeping-a searing memoir and a profound reflection on science, religion, and the human condition.

With her signature combination of intellectual rigor and uninhibited imagination, Ehrenreich offers a true literary achievement—a work that has the power not only to entertain but amaze.

Don't Say a Word Farrar, Straus and Giroux (BYR) Customers who like books by Kristin Hannah, Luanne Rice, Robyn Carr and Susan Wiggs will enjoy this emotional and romantic piece of contemporary fiction from #1 loved her New York Times Bestselling Author Barbara Freethy. This is a full length novel of approximately 100,000 words. Take a romantic journey with award-winning author Barbara Freethy to Tucker's Landing, Oregon, where Sam and Alli Tucker have made a life together ... a life about to be tested by the return of the only woman who can break them up ... Alli's sister, Tessa. A baby brought them together -- and even though

Alli has always strong, sexy husband Sam and the life they've built together, she has decided to set him free to follow his youthful dreams. It is no longer enough for her to be wife and lover when she knows she holds so little of his heart. Sam has always dreamed of a life away from the close-knit world of Tucker's Landing, but marriage and fatherhood ended all that. Now Sam is torn between what was and what was meant to

be. He must decide if it's time to
rekindle the
dreams of the past ... or
accept Alli,
and her love,
just the way
she is.
