Hello, Norma Jean
Zumaya
Publications LLC
Looking for love...

Marilyn Jacobs has everything in her life that she wants...except the right man. She wants excitement, she wants passion...she wants the gorgeous man she just met! Making a bold first move seemed like the perfect plan until Loverboy ignored her come-on. Her humiliation is only slightly appeased because she knows she ' ll never see him again. What are the odds, right? Or not.

Blake Bryant is all about work, and while casual sex with a beautiful woman isn't something he normally turns down, Marilyn is the ex of his new business partner. Drama and complications are two things Blake avoids more than commitment. No matter how intriguing and tempting Marilyn is. But when both Blake and Marilyn are caught up in a suspicious robbery, they both must decide what's really important in life and if they're willing to admit their true feelings...before it's too late.

iUniverse
Fifteen deftly

crafted stories from the award-winning author of The Jazz Palace, "a marvelous storyteller" (Chicago Tribune Books). Acclaimed author Mary Morris takes us to a Greek village, Cape Canaveral, South America, New York City in the heat of August—and into the heads and hearts of characters coming to know a bit more about their worlds. A Panamanian girl searches for her beautiful sister; a typewriter reveals unspoken secrets to a vacationing couple; the employees of a copy shop long for the lives of their customers. Morris's wistful, knowing style and her grasp of the tiny elements that mark the turning points in relationships make her stories resonate with lingering emotional truths. Praise for Mary Morris's The Jazz Palace: "There is a reason I have always called Mary Morris my writing mentor: she taught me everything I know; and here is the living proof." —Jodi Picoult, New York Times—bestselling author Little Woods Winselt Press

Ascension Sunday balloons are not the only things disappearing in the English village of Aidan Kirkwood. When the villagers celebrate the first Ascension Sunday Processional in fifty years, someone goes missing. A well off widow who was amongst the crowd has vanished into thin air. And she's not the only one who's nowhere to be found. Berdie Elliott, the local vicar's wife, goes into sleuth mode as eccentric cat lovers, a secretive informant, Portuguese holidays, an enigmatic "tree" house, and tangled family dynamics all add to the perplexing affair.

Noteable Book
Mesmerizing,
exhilarating, and
profoundly moving,
Mr. Peanut is a police procedural of the soul, a poignant
investigation of the
relentlessly
mysterious human heart. David Pepin
has been in love with his wife, Alice, since the moment they met
in a university
seminar on Alfred Hitchcock. After
thirteen years of marriage, he still can't imagine a
remotely happy life
without her—yet he
obsessively
contemplates her

demise. Soon she is dead, and David is both deeply distraught
and the prime suspect.
The detectives
investigating Alice's suspicious death have plenty of personal
experience with
conjugal enigmas:
Ward Hastroll is happily married until his wife inexplicably
becomes voluntarily
and militantly
bedridden; and Sam Sheppard is especially sensitive to the
intricacies of marital
guilt and innocence,
having decades before
been convicted and
then exonerated of the brutal murder of his wife. Like the Escher drawings that inspire
the computer games
David designs for a
living, these complex,
interlocking dramas
are structurally and
emotionally intense,
subtle, and intriguing;

they brilliantly explore the warring impulses of affection and hatred, and pose a host of arresting questions. Is it possible to know anyone fully, completely? Are murder and marriage two sides of the same coin, each endlessly recycling into the other? And what, in the end, is the truth about love?

Books 1 - 5 of the Unspoken Series are also available as a discounted box set! A guilt-stained heart finds the meaning of forgiveness alongside his true love.... The Unspoken Series is a 10 book series.

Books 1-5 are available now. Best when read in order. What Readers Are Saying "This series is like Downton Abbey meets today's world. I love the old-century ideals mixed with the culture we have now. Refreshing!" "I love that this book is different from the first book. The idealism in the first book is sweet, but this book brings us down from the clouds and back to reality as Gavin discovers that his future depends on the choices he makes now." "The relationship between these two characters is incredible, their bond is so strong it feels like they're real people, and what is even more surreal is that I feel like I know them." "This book was so beautiful. I love Marilyn Grey's writing both in 'Where Love Finds You,' and now even more so in 'Down from the Clouds.'" THIS IS BOOK 2 OF THE UNSPOKEN SERIES Gavin Kessler is one of the most sensitive and emotional people you'd ever know, except you'd never know it. Trying to find out how he feels is like pulling a one-hundred pound bucket of water out of a seventy foot well. But when he finally falls in love and meets the woman of his dreams, who is set on getting to know every part of him, for better or worse, his walls crumble as he is forced to stand face-to-face with the past he's been avoiding. A mysterious letter from Gavin's grandfather sends him and his beloved on a reluctant journey through his childhood and beyond, all the while planning their ideal wedding. Dreams are shattered and new paths are forged as two hearts mold into one. A beautifully romantic continuation of Where Love Finds You. Angeliad BOOK 1 OF THE UNSPOKEN SERIES Ella and Matthew have many differences, but they share a common goal: to find the one person they are meant to spend their lives with. Years ago, Ella Rhodes looked across a crowded cafe and saw the man she wanted to spend the rest of her life with. She left her number, but he never called. Wondering if he somehow missed the note on the back of the receipt, she spent her twenties waiting for this man to walk into her life again. After all this time, will Ella finally discover "the one" she's been waiting for? Or, after being sent on various blind dates, will she give her heart to someone else? Meanwhile, Matthew Ryan breaks up with his long-time girlfriend. Searching his heart he wonders if there is really a "one" for every person, or if there is simply a good, better, and best. Where does Lydia, the girl who would do anything for him, fit into the story of his life? Confused, Matthew sets out to explore his options and find the love he's been looking for his entire life. Will he find love before it's too late or will he lose everything? After reading Where Love Finds You, follow the stories of these character's from Gavin's perspective in Down from the Clouds.

Author House

In 1833, a young, lightning-scarred oak tree grows near a village of Potawatomi Indians, the Neshnabek. Here, Watseka and her family must fight to save themselves from the onslaught of white migration and disease in the Little Woods. But the mandates of the Indian Removal Act of 1830 and the atrocities of the Black Hawk War of 1832 serve to undermine the Neshnabek's bargaining position as they relinquish their legacy through the Treaty of Chicago and prepare for their removal to the west. That same venerable oak stands in twenty-first-century St. Charles, Illinois, and bears witness to violence, despair, and hope in the McCallum family's fight to surmount turmoil inflicted by the encroaching world. When her job is outsourced to Venezuela, Marilyn McCallum falls into clinical depression. Her husband, Lloyd, sinks into the compulsion of illegal sports betting after his profession is supplanted by a superabundance of Chinese engineers. But with adversaries and allies emerging from surprising places, the McCallums must come to quick terms with their new reality. The fate of these two culturally diverse families living in different eras of Illinois history merge in Little Woods, a gripping tale of globalization's disturbing effect on life in the present and the past that offers a sobering view of our future.

Ghostly Comedies

Open Road +
Grove/Atlantic

"It was about four years ago, the last trip we ever took together--my mother, sister, grandparents and me. Course, we didn't know it at the time. You never know something like that, like it's the last one you'll ever get, till it's just a memory, hanging like mist. This is what happened that summer, true as I can tell it. Not a one of us was ever the same." Part road trip, part mystery, and completely unexpected, Saving Cicadas picks you up in one place and puts you down someplace else entirely. It's an eloquent reminder that life is a miracle--and even the smallest soul is a gift. "...a surprisingly creative tale that will leave readers guessing until the end." -River Jordan, author of Saints in Limbo Where Love Finds You Ballantine Books In spare, elegant stories reminiscent of the writings of Harlem Renaissance writer Dorothy West, Anika Nailah illuminates the emotional, spiritual, and social realities that shape--and sometimes

destroy—the lives and dreams of ordinary African Americans. The stories in Free offer a moving, strikingly original perspective on how cultural experiences and social assumptions impact our lives. The characters include young children trying to cope with the mysteries of adult behavior, adults striving to define themselves in a society unwilling to accept who and what they are, and elderly people looking back on the often difficult choices they have made. They all	share a yearning to be free of the ties imposed by others, ties that bind their bodies, minds, or spirits. "Trudy" depicts a battle of wills between a black salesclerk and a white customer, shining a harsh light on the bigotry of the 1950s. In "My Side of the Story," a little boy struggles to understand why his mother has abandoned him despite her claims that she loves him. "All These Years" is a touching vignette about a couple married for fifty-four years who reminisce	about the attraction they felt at their very first meeting and realize that the magic still remains. In the aptly titled "Inside Out," a man who has adopted all the trappings of the white world—the hair, the clothes, the speech, the attitudes—finds himself still ostracized in his office and gently mocked at home by a wife who embraces her blackness with pride. In probing the interior landscapes behind the everyday faces her characters assume, Anika Nailah brilliantly exposes the injustices and struggles African Americans confront, the skills they develop in order to survive, and the psychological and spiritual costs of survival.

In this compelling and revealing examination, author Rupert Matthews looks afresh at key episodes of alien activity on earth, and sheds light on the many mysterious phenomena associated with it. From Roswell to Taizé, the book dissects fascinating eyewitness accounts of communication and contact with alien beings, as well as chilling cases of abduction. It also sifts through sinister evidence of government cover-ups. Alien Encounters provides in-depth analysis of the most important encounters, including: • The pilot who saw a formation of alien aircraft • The Exeter Incident - chased by UFOs in the darkness • The Socorro Incident - solid evidence of alien activity • Betty and Barney Hill - abducted on Highway 3 Alien Encounters is a gripping investigation of strange events that continue to spark fierce debate. The Pentagon's decision in 2020 to admit the existence of its UFO division has begun a new era in encounters between humans and extra-terrestrials.

Understanding the meanings behind these strange events has never been more important.
