Sayre, literary scholar and art historian, demonstrates that Williams' work, heavily influenced by painters and photographers of the Stieglitz circle, is actually founded in the visual dimension of the printed word and must be approached as both graphic design and the representation of visual experience itself. He traces Williams' preoccupation with a visual order of poetry from his early work to the sophisticated replacement of painting by words in Paterson, Book Five and Pictures from Brueghel. Shows how Williams came to conceive of the poem as a visual order within which the disarray of the American scene could be composed. He advances a substantially new conception of Williams, forcing readers to reconsider their views. ISBN 0-252-01059-0 : $12.95.

'Performance' has become one of the key terms for the new century. But what do we mean by 'performance'? In today's world it can refer to experimental art; productivity in the workplace; and the functionality of technological systems. Do these disparate fields bear any relation to each other? In Perform or Else Jon McKenzie asserts that there is a relationship cultural, organisational, and technological performance. In this theoretical tour de force McKenzie demonstrates that all three paradigms operate together to create powerful and contradictory pressures to 'perform...or else'. This is an urgent and important intervention in contemporary critical thinking. It will profoundly shape our understanding of twenty-first century structures of power and knowledge.

I wrote him a letter asking him for old times' sake
To discharge my sick boy from the army;
But maybe he couldn't read it.
Then I went to town and had James Garber,
Who wrote beautifully,
write him a letter.
But maybe that was lost in the mails.
So I traveled all the way to Washington.
I was more than an hour finding the White House.
And when I found it they turned me away,
Hiding their smiles.
Then I thought: "Oh, well, he ain't the same as when I boarded him
And he and my husband worked together
And all of us called him Abe, there in Menard."
As a last attempt I turned to a guard and said: "Please say it's old Aunt Hannah Armstrong
From Illinois, come to see him about her sick boy
In the army."
Well, just in a moment they let me in!
And when he saw me he broke in a laugh,
And dropped his business as president,
And wrote in his own hand Doug's discharge,
Talking the while of the early days,
And telling stories.
