Drawing For Dummies: Brenda Hoddinott, Jamie Combs ...

I'm not that good at drawing and I don't really have the free time for classes so I figured the next best thing was a "For Dummies" book. Something that I could go at my own pace.

Thankfully Brenda Hoddinott made it a fun read and her years of teaching and training show in the way she wrote the book.

I got a bit of an "artistic bug" a while back and thought I'd try learning drawing techniques - so far I had been able to take a standard #2 pencil and do some pretty horrid sketches on copier paper, but that's about it.

Drawing for Dummies is, as another reviewer states, like a classroom in a book.
